This stunning release by Gathering features a veritable 'Who's Who' of writers and musicians from the folk-rock genre. A combined musical heritage has seen them record and perform with some of the most influential artists to grace stages and record collections worldwide. Gathering features former and current members of Fairport Convention, Steeleye Span, Lindisfarne, Magna Carta, The Albion Band, Jethro Tull, and Pentangle. Never before (outside of the seminal festivals of folk-rock's brightest and finest period) has such a line up been drawn from folk-rock's most influential bands, coming together here to celebrate a shared heritage of songs and performances!

The superb vocal delivery of Kristina Donahue just adds to the mix on classic tracks such as Deep In The Darkest Night and For Shame Of Doing Wrong and also featured on this excellent release is a re-working of the Lindisfarne hit Lady Eleanor.
